DRINK MORE WATER
IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat and Take Salts for Backache or Bladder Trouble

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog, you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you'll feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated, and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful, effervescent, lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

Awful Treatment of War Prisoners in Germany Is Described

GERARD TELLS OF TERRIBLE CRUELITIES

Prisoners Put in Typhus-Stricken Camps—Children Practice Cruelties

New York, April 11.—British charges of cruel treatment received by war prisoners in Germany are confirmed by James W. Gerard.

For the first time since his return from Germany, the former American ambassador, at the dinner of the Canadian club Monday night, told some of the things he had seen on visits to the German prison camps.

"I have seen small boys," said Mr. Gerard, "march about the prison camps armed with bows and arrows and shoot arrows tipped with nails at the prisoners."

"At another camp I visited they had trained German sheep dogs to bite British soldiers and when the guards went through the camp they took trained dogs with them."

"Another time there was typhus fever in a camp where Russians were interned. Saying that all the allies should stick together, the Germans placed the English and French prisoners with the Russians in the typhus camp, thus condemning numbers of them to certain death."

As the climax of his story, Mr. Gerard told how the inhabitants of a northern German town were imprisoned and held up to shame because they had given food and drink to a trainload of Canadian war prisoners who were starving and half dead with thirst.

CONSTABLE WAS GUILTY.

Admitted That He Made Treasonable Remark in Public.

Suffield, Conn., April 11.—Charged with having made a treasonable derogatory remark about President Wilson, Constable Samuel G. Lathrop was arrested Monday night by order of State's Atty. Alcorn of Hartford and, pleading guilty to the accusation before a justice of the peace, was ordered to resign at once from his office of constable and was sentenced to 30 days in jail. Yesterday the jail sentence was suspended, out of consideration, it was said, for his relatives.

The remark was made publicly on the street, according to witnesses at the hearing, and Lathrop was given opportunity to make a public apology but declined to do so.

Doctors and Eye Specialists Agree
That Bon-Opto Strengthens Eyesight 50%
In a Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Boston, Mass.—Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that Doctors and Eye Specialists now agree there is a real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed heavy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses. I have worn glasses for several years, both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on the envelope or the typewriting on the machine before me. I can do both now, and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses.

Dr. Beck, an eye specialist of nearly twenty years practice, says: "A patient came to me who was suffering from Biphthalmia Marginalis with all the concomitant symptoms, as morning agglutination of the lids, chronic conjunctivitis and epiphora. Her eyes when not congested had the dull, suffused expression common to such cases. Having run out of her medicine, I prescribed Bon-Opto. She used this treatment and not only overcame her distressing condition, but strange and amazing as it may seem, so strengthened her eyesight that she was able to dispense with her distance glasses and her headache and neuralgia left her. In this instance I should say her eyesight was improved 100%."

I have since verified the efficacy of this treatment in a number of cases and have seen the eyesight improve from 50 to 75 per cent in a remarkably short time. I can say it works more quickly than any other remedy I have prescribed for the eyes."

Dr. Smith, an oculist of wide experience, says: "I have treated in private practice a number of serious ocular diseases with Bon-Opto and am able to report ultimate recovery in both acute and chronic cases. Mr. B. came to my office suffering with an infected eye. The condition was so serious that an operation for excision seemed imperative. Before resorting to the operative treatment I prescribed Bon-Opto and in 24 hours the secretion had been cured and retained its normal vision. Another case of extreme convergent strabismus (cross eyes) escaped the surgeon's knife by the timely use of your collyrium. The tightened external muscles yielded to Bon-Opto and in 24 hours the secretion had been cured and retained its normal vision. I always instill Bon-Opto after removal of foreign bodies and apply it locally to all burns, ulcers and spots on the eyeball or the lids for its therapeutic effect. By cleansing the lids of secretions and acting as a tonic for the eyeball itself the vision is rendered more acute, hence the number of cases of discarded glasses."

Dr. Conner says: "My eyes were in bad condition owing to the severe strain arising from protracted microscopic research work. Bon-Opto used according to directions rendered a surprising service. I found my eyes remarkably strengthened, so much so I have put aside my glasses without discomfort. Several of my colleagues have also used it and we are agreed as to its results. In a few days, under my observation, the eyes of an astigmatic case were so improved that glasses have been discarded by the patient."

Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of Bon-Opto and if you want to strengthen your eyes, go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved the sight of their eyes had they used their eyes in time."

Dr. A. C. Phillips, to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Yes, Bon-Opto is a remarkable eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or fatigue. I can highly recommend it in case of weak, watery, itching, smarting, itchy, burning eyes, red lids, blurred vision or dust or wind. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family. Bon-Opto is not a patent medicine or secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation, the formula being printed on the package. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen and clear the eyes in one week's time in many instances, or refund the money. It is dispensed by all good druggists in this city, including E. Russell and all other wide-awake drug stores.—Adv."

5 out of 9 on a Pullman

A random test was recently made in a crowded Pullman Club Car—and it was found that, of the men who were smoking cigarettes, 5 out of 9 were smoking Fatimas.

Probably an unusually high percentage even for Fatimas; but this case is merely one of the many evidences that more and more representative men are now-a-days choosing a sensible cigarette.

They smoke Fatimas—not alone for their likeable taste—but for the common sense "man-comfort" that they find in this delicately balanced Turkish blend. Fatimas please the throat and tongue while you are smoking them—and they leave you feeling "fit" afterwards.

You don't have to think of "how many" when you are smoking a sensible cigarette like Fatima.
